

Republic of Sudan
Ministry of Investment and International Cooperation

Investment Guarantees and Incentives 2021

1- Guarantees

- * All investments in the Sudan enjoy fair treatment
- * Invested funds are not subject to arbitrary procedures or discriminatory decisions
- * Establishing a specialized investment Public Prosecutions
- * Establishing specialized investment courts to expedite of resolving any disputes between investor and any party if this occurs, and to ensure the rights of investors
- * The investment law equates between the local and foreign investors in rights and duties

2- Advantages

- * Firstly- Investment projects are exempt from customs duties on project imports from capital equipment in coordination with the competent authorities.
- * Secondly- Specialized means of transport are exempt from customs duties as specified by the regulations.
- * Thirdly- Production inputs for investment projects are subject to the same category of fees received on production inputs in the customs tariff duties as specified by the regulation.
- * Fourthly- Investment projects are exempt from business profits tax for a period not exceeding five years, as specified by the regulations.
- * Fifthly- Exemption from value-added tax for the capital equipment of the project according to a list approved by the Ministry.

3- Incentives

- * Allowing to import capital equipment for the project, of machines and equipment.
- * Allowing to import raw materials which needed by the project and its products.
- * Allowing of bringing skilled foreign labor within 30% of total employment.
- * The foreign investor obtains work permits and residence for him and his family throughout the duration of implementation and operation the project.
- * Non-subjection the wages and allowances to non-Sudanese workers to social insurance.
- * Not to impose any administrative fee on the investment project, only with reference to the Ministry of Investment and International Cooperation.

